Permanent Residents will be allowed reentry with a valid NC driver’s license with a local address or a current County property tax receipt.

Although flood waters are beginning to subside, be aware that dangerous conditions continue to exist. Everyone is advised to stay off the roads and avoid travel.

Town of Duck

No Curfew. Sanitation pick-up has been changed from Monday to Tuesday, October 11. Recycling will occur as scheduled on Monday, October 10. Please do not leave trash bins on curb until Monday night, and refrain from placing recycling bins on curb until winds subside if possible.

Dare County, also known as The Outer Banks of North Carolina, is a chain of barrier islands midway on the Atlantic Seaboard. Dare County includes the towns of Duck, Southern Shores, Kitty Hawk, Kill Devil Hills, Nags Head, and Manteo. Dare County also encompasses Roanoke Island, the Dare mainland and Hatteras Island, which includes the villages of Rodanthe, Waves, Salvo, Avon, Buxton, Frisco and Hatteras.

Town of Kitty Hawk

There is no curfew for Kitty Hawk. The Town has declared a State of Emergency and access has been limited to Dare County residents, emergency and recovery personnel and critical business personnel. We are experiencing ocean overwash and plan to begin pumping floodwater between the highways as soon as the permit is obtained and ocean conditions allow.

Town of Nags Head

People are urged to remain inside and off the roads due to the hazardous conditions that still exist. There will be no sanitation collection in Nags Head on Monday, October 10. Please do not place sanitation carts out by the road until further notice.

Town of Southern Shores

Trash and recycle collection service for the Town of Southern Shores has been rescheduled and will be serviced on Tuesday, October 11th.
